FRENCH LICK, Ind. – Following a successful showing at the Springs Valley Festival of Marching Bands last week, the Blackhawk Brigade takes to the road for the first of their two trips to Evansville this year.

Springs Valley is performing at the Evansville Central Invitational on Saturday. They take the field at 9:43 pm EDT. Joining Springs Valley in class 3A competition will be Gibson Southern and Vincennes Lincoln, both recent Class C State Finalist.

If you cannot make it to the contest, Indiana Marching.com will be broadcasting the event live via the internet. Visit BlackhawkBrigade.com to watch the contest.

In the pre-season Indiana Marching.com Class D Writers Poll, the Blackhawk Brigade is ranked third. Forest Park, the defending champion, garnered all the first place votes and is atop the poll. Other notables include Paoli at seventh and Orleans at nineteenth.

Pride of Paoli:

Paoli is sitting out week one to prepare their show further. They open next week as they host the Pride of Paoli Invitational

Orleans Bulldog Regiment:

Orleans heads down to Lincoln to compete in the Heritage Hills Invitational. They take to the field at 6:24 pm EDT in class 2A competition.

Northeast Dubois Marching Jeeps:

Northeast Dubois will open their 2009 season at the Evansville Central Invitational. They are schedule to start at 4:39 pm EDT in class A competition.

Crawford County Wolfpack:

Crawford Country will stay at home and continue to work on their show this weekend. They open next week as they go to both North Harrison and Paoli.
