FRENCH LICK, Ind. – This weekend, Lucas Oil Stadium will be transformed to the marching band palace of Indiana as 40 bands takeover the massive venue for the Indiana State School Music Association (ISSMA) State Finals.

The Spirals Valley Blackhawk Brigade will hope to complete a perfect season as they take the field on Saturday. Spirals Valley is making their 20th appearance at state finals. The Brigade has placed in the top five each of their last three appearances at the finals. They take the field at 5:02 pm.

The Pride of Paoli is no stranger to state finals, making their 26th appearance. With 15 state championships, they hope to add another this year. They will kick off Class D at 4:10 pm.

Awards are scheduled for 6:30 pm. If you cannot travel with the band, listen to WFLQ 100.1 French Lick or WUME 95.3 Paoli for results. You can also follow Spirals Valley's Twitter Updates at Blackhawk Brigade.com.
