FRENCH LICK, Ind. – Saturday, local bands will descend on French Lick for the third annual Springs Valley Festival of Marching Bands.

The annual event is a pre-season event to give local bands a chance to perform in front of a crowd before the contest season begins. “Our goal is to provide a casual performance opportunity for your ensemble at a local level,” said Director of Bands at Springs Valley, Luke Aylsworth.

Attending the festival this year will be Northeast Dubois, Orleans, Paoli, Crawford County, and new this year Heritage Hills. The groups will begin warm-ups at 5:30 and the show will begin at 7:00 pm.

All tickets for the event will be sold at the gate. Ticket prices are as follows: $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for children. The Springs Valley Band Boosters will also be selling concessions.

If you cannot attend the event, go online to IndianaMarching.com and you will be able to watch the entire event via the internet. IndianaMarching.com is Indiana’s home for marching band information.
