FRENCH LICK, Ind. – On Saturday, Springs Valley will travel to the Franklin Class D Semi-State in hopes of obtaining a third consecutive trip to state finals.

The Semi-State is a new feature to the ISSMA line-up this year. This contest will feature the top 10 bands from both the north and south regions. The top ten bands from the Semi-State will advance to the ISSMA State Finals at Lucas Oil Stadium on November 1.

Springs Valley will take the field at 4:15pm. Springs Valley is one of 20 bands to compete on Saturday. Parents, family, and friends are encouraged to arrive at the high school to send the band off at 10:15am.

Both the Pride of Paoli and Orleans Bulldog Regiment will also be vying for slots in the state finals. Orleans takes the field at 2:18pm while Paoli will perform at 2:44pm.

As soon as results are available, they will be posted on Blackhawk Brigade.com and may be announced on local radio stations. Stay tuned on Saturday for more information.
