FRENCH LICK, Ind. – The Springs Valley Blackhawk Brigade opens their competitive season this week as they travel to the Music in Motion Festival at Warren Central High School in Indianapolis.

The Brigade will compete in Class D against Morristown and Triton Central. Springs Valley will perform at 6:26pm with awards for all classes beginning near 8:00pm.

This week, Springs Valley remained in second in the weekly Indiana Marching.com Writers Poll. Springs Valley is tied in that spot with defending state champion Lewis Cass. This week's number one is the Marching Rangers of Forest Park. Last week, the Rangers competed at Heritage Hills and won the class AA competition.

Other Area Bands:

Pride of Paoli: The Pride of Paoli, ranked 8th in this week's polls, is idle. Their next show will be on September 20 as they host the annual Pride of Paoli Invitational. Currently, 20 bands are schedule to attend including Springs Valley, Orleans, Northeast Dubois, Crawford County, and Jasper Orleans Bulldog Regiment: The Bulldog Regiment appeared in the top 20 this week. They find themselves 19th. They will perform at the Mid-States contest at Columbus North High School. Performing in class AA, they take the field at 6:00pm with awards scheduled for 9:30pm.
