FRENCH LICK, Ind. – Director of Bands Luke Aylsworth is prepping the Springs Valley Blackhawk Brigade for their first national contest since 1999.

The Blackhawk Brigade will participate in the Lucas Oil Stadium Sound Check; an event ran by Bands of America. Bands of America, a part of the Music for All organization, run multiple regional and national marching band competitions across the United States.

Springs Valley will take the field at 7:15pm on Saturday at Lucas Oil. Prior to that, they will take part in the Meijer Greenwood Invitational where they will compete with many of the top Class D bands in Central Indiana. Their performance at Greenwood is 3:00pm.

Other Area Bands:

Pride of Paoli: Paoli will take part in their first contest of the season as they perform at the Highlander Invitational at Floyd Central High School. The Pride will compete in Class C and take the field at 8:24pm.

Orleans Bulldog Regiment: The Regiment will travel to the Bluegrass State for the Ballard Mid-State Invitational. They will compete in 2A Competition and take the field at high noon in Louisville, Kentucky.
