FRENCH LICK, Ind. – Saturday marks the second round of ISSMA State competition action. Area bands will be traveling to Jeffersonville for the ISSMA South Regional.

Seventeen bands from Class D will compete for ten spots in the October 25 semi-state at Franklin Comm. High School. The Springs Valley Blackhawk Brigade hopes to be one of those heading to semi-state. Springs Valley is the first of the 17 bands to take the field at 11:00am.

“We really need a great deal of crowd support at the Regional competition in Jeffersonville this weekend,” stated Director of Bands Luke Aylsworth. “The students get really motivated to perform in front of a large crowd.”

Also representing Orange County will be both Orleans and Paoli. The Orleans Bulldog Regiment will take the field at 2:28pm and the Pride of Paoli wraps up class D at 2:41pm. Awards should begin just after 3:00pm.
